5. Report of the Office of Inspector General.
 - 5.1. The Office of the Inspector General was represented by Interim IG Ed Michel. Other OIG staff members were also in attendance, including Erica Smith.
 - 5.2. Mr. Michel discussed his current organizational status and personnel vacancies.
 - 5.3. Mr. Michel discussed that his budget is down by more than 12% because of a decrease in city tax revenue.

- 5.4. Ms. Smith discussed 2020 OIG expenditures, including operating and personnel expenses. She reported that the OIG will return approximately $1.1 million to the city.

 - 5.4.2. Mr. Michel replied that it would be an increase in expenditure of approximately $300,000.
 - 5.5. Mr. Michel reported that COVID furloughs have hampered the work of his office. This is particularly difficult because the existing headcount is already down.
 - 5.6. Mr. Michel used the attached slides to report on his work and review of operations since November 1, 2020.
 - 5.7. Mr. Michel reported on OIG investigations, particularly the office’s work that contributed to the conviction of Irvin Mayfield.
 - 5.8. Mr. Sanders asked about the status of the OIG litigation over jurisdiction to investigate the Orleans Parish Communications District. Ms. Smith reported that the challenge is based on the multiple sources of funds for that office—it receives state funds in addition to city funds. She reported that the issue is pending before the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeal.
 - 5.9. Mr. Sanders asked about an OIG absence or succession plan. Mr. Michel reported that his office is working on both in order to assure continuity of operations. This was a problem when former IG Harper refused to designate someone to act in his absence. Mr. Cowan noted the importance of having a continuity plan that is consistent with but that goes beyond the current ability of the ERB to discharge and appoint an interim IG.
6. Report of the Office of the Independent Police Monitor.
- 6.1. IPM Susan Hutson appeared for the OIPM.
 - 6.2. Ms. Hutson discussed her monthly report (attached).
 - 6.3. Ms. Hutson noted that complaints are up. It was a “busy November.”
 - 6.4. Ms. Hutson noted at the next meeting she would like additional time to discuss NOPD consent decree issues and to educate the board about her office’s current and future roles in overseeing NOPD operations.
 - 6.5. Ms. Hutson noted that she would further discuss the “tear gas” incident involving NOPD at the next ERB meeting.

- 6.6. Ms. Calderon asked whether the OIPM had adequate funds for the year. Ms. Hutson responded that she would have liked to have received excess funds from the OIG surplus. Mr. Cowan suggested that the agencies should share more information on budgets to consider such requests earlier in the budget year.
7. Vote on Ethics Training Employee or Contractor
 - 7.1. Mr. Ciolino discussed the pros and cons of facilitating ethics training using a contractor vs. using an employee. The board discussed the relative strengths and weakness of each approach.
 - 7.2. The board unanimously approved a seconded-motion that the board create and fill a classified ethics trainer position. This will be a full-time position and will report to Mr. Ciolino.
 - 7.3. Mr. Ciolino stated that he would start working with Civil Service and the CAO's office to have the position created.
8. Report of Executive Administrator and General Counsel.
 - 8.1. Mr. Ciolino reported that no new complaints had been received.

NOVEMBER 2020

INDEPENDENT POLICE MONITOR

Community Letter

Dear New Orleans Community,

Whenever I reflect on November, I count my blessings – both personally and professionally. This has been a trying year, and it may feel like it's not easy to immediately remember what should be celebrated, but one thing immediately and loudly came to my mind and that is you: the people of New Orleans and our community partners. I want to start this letter by thanking you for all your support during this year. I want to thank you for your engagement which we have seen in your thoughtful comments to City Council during our presentations and your submission of complaints and commendations to our office. I want to thank you for your eye towards justice and accountability which you have demonstrated time and again as you have asked us for answers and meetings and how to ask for more from the police that seek to serve you. Thank you for your partnership and your voice. For these things, I am very grateful.

As you may reflect on what you are grateful this year, you may recall a positive experience you have had with a NOPD officer. One of those occasions when an officer demonstrated an exemplary commitment to service or helped you or your family. If such a memory comes to mind, please act on it – submit your positive compliment to our office and we will prepare a commendation letter to the NOPD. Improvement to our police department can happen when we report on what is going wrong, but it can also be just as impactful to say what is going right and what the NOPD should replicate and build on. Your positive feedback is a powerful learning opportunity to the NOPD on what they should keep doing to ensure the NOPD effectively serving our community.

During the month of November, the OIPM presented to City Council about our budgetary requests for 2021. This presentation was an opportunity for the OIPM to both inform the government of what we have achieved in 2020 and put forth a set of priorities and projects that we seek to complete in the coming year. We appreciated the opportunity to analyze our impact and think critically about how to continue to expand our work, despite any budgetary setbacks and furloughs, in 2021.

This month the OIPM continued to engage with our Consent Decree partners at the US Attorney's Office, the District Attorney's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the Federal Monitor's Office, and leadership at NOPD through participating in the Consent Decree progress meeting. This meeting is an opportunity for these agencies to come to the table and report out about efforts to bring the NOPD into compliance with the Consent Decree. OIPM continues to remain dedicated to the vision of complete compliance to the Consent Decree and looks forward to progressing towards that goal over the next year.

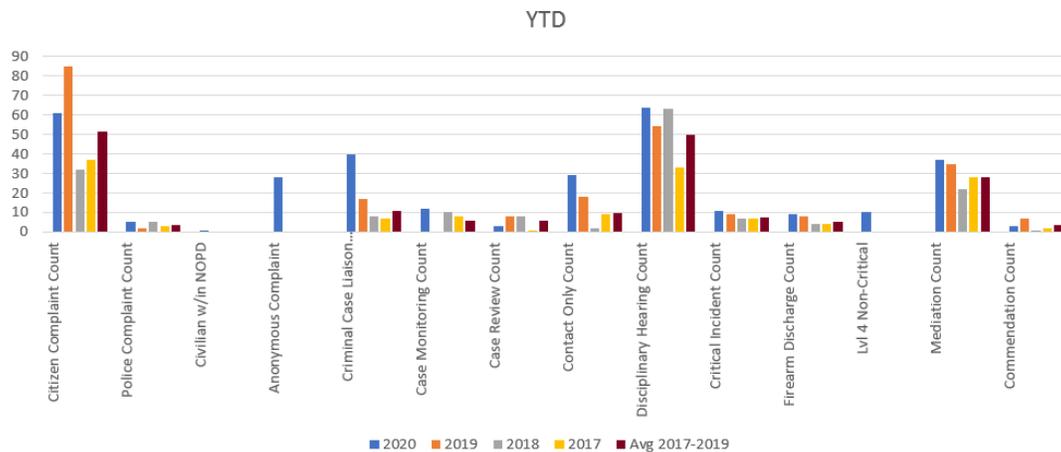

As previously reported, the OIPM has continued our facilitation of musician concerns to the leadership at NOPD. Musicians and street performers celebrate the culture and spirit of our city and we want to make sure these artists have the space to perform free from over policing. We will continue to facilitate dialogs between affected musicians and the NOPD to ensure that our city stays vibrant.

Thank you,

Susan Hutson

The OIPM monitors and reviews the classification and investigation conducted by PIB. If the complaint continues into a disciplinary proceeding, the OIPM will continue to monitor and review the disciplinary process. OIPM monitors and reviews disciplinary proceedings conducted by NOPD to ensure accountability and fairness.
